

CURRICULUM VITAE

Joanna Tsiganou

Director of Research

Institute of Political Research

EKKE

Communication:

Tel: ++ 6974583500

E-Mail:

jtsiganou@ekke.gr

jgtsiganou@gmail.com

Short CV

Joanna Tsiganou is a lawyer, Doctor of Sociology of Crime and Deviance of the University of London (Ph.D., LSE 1988). As a member of the research staff of EKKE, he has participated (since 1994 onwards) in the design and implementation of research projects and programs, in the familiarization and consolidation of new research tools and research infrastructures through international, European and Greek scientific networks and collaborations and in the diffusion of research findings in international and Greek fora. She has gained valuable experience in the management of research projects as well as in the administrative issues related to the design and development of the research development strategy of EKKE with the qualities of the Vice-Chairman of the Board of EKKE, the Director of the Institute of Political Sociology of EKKE, as member of the Scientific Advisory Council of the Institute but also as a participant with various qualities in the scientific and administrative bodies, associations and scientific societies. She has participated and/or co-ordinated more than 50 research projects, has authored more than 100 articles and monographs, independently and with other scholars, published in Greek and international scientific journals and collective volumes and has participated in the publication and editing of 28 books together with colleagues and autonomously. Finally, she has been teaching for a number of years in tertiary education and participates as an expert in: a) international - European scientific networks of experts, b) evaluations of research and basic and applied research programs, and c) scientific committees of scientific publications, newspapers and periodicals.